

Tour Policy

The Chattanooga Metropolitan Airport Authority (CMAA) and Wilson Air Center work together to provide the best airport tour experience available in Chattanooga. The Chattanooga Airport receives many tour requests throughout the year. Due to limited staffing availability and security requirements, the following guidelines have been established for tours of the airport.

Commercial Terminal

The Chattanooga Airport, in general, does not offer guided tours of the commercial terminal due to security requirements. Exceptions may be made on a very limited, case-by-case basis, at the sole discretion of the CMAA. Groups are welcome to take a self-guided tour of the non-secure areas of the terminal. Please give a courtesy call to the Airport Authority at 423-855-2200 before bringing a large group to the airport.

General Aviation Facilities

Tours of the general aviation facilities at the Chattanooga Airport offer groups an opportunity to learn about aviation while viewing airplanes of various sizes up close.

Available tour topics include:

- Basics of flight and general aviation
- Airport operations and fire safety
- Solar energy and sustainability initiatives at the airport
- Water quality

Tours are limited to 40 participants per session and are offered on the fourth Friday of each month on a first-come, first-served basis. Exceptions may be made to accommodate school groups at the sole discretion of the CMAA.

While we will work hard to meet the needs of your tour, CMAA and Wilson Air Center cannot guarantee that a pilot or plane will be available for any tour. We also do not coordinate tours of the Air Traffic Control Tower, or private hangars on the airfield.

To book a tour for your school or community group, please complete the attached form and submit it by fax to 423-855-2212, Attention Facility Tours.
